A Focus on Surety

Surety Overview

- Surety bonds represent a tri-party, credit-like agreement protecting an Obligee against losses incurred as a result of a Principal's failure to perform its contractual obligation(s)
 - Obligee: Party requiring the bond and receiving the direct benefit of the bond
 - Principal: Obligation to complete all contractual terms and conditions
 - Surety: Secondary guarantor of Principal's obligation
- Many Obligees require surety bonds as a qualification for contract execution
- Underwrite is credit-based, focused on long-term relationships with Principals, frequent financial updates/analysis and understanding of track-record, business-focus and pipeline
 - Expertise in Surety takes years to develop
- Claims are triggered when a Principal fails to meet its contractual terms and conditions, at which point a Surety steps in to satisfy the obligation
 - Unlike insurance policies, surety bonds are often protected by Indemnity Agreements and other forms of collateral, which allow for a degree of recovery of claims
- Claims profile tends to be lower frequency and higher severity than more commoditized or personal lines
- Surety Return on Equity is higher than other business lines at Trisura
